UPDATE: Police identify drivers in Lisbon collision

Howard County police are continuing to investigate a two-vehicle collision on Rt. 94 (Woodbine Rd.) between Rt. 144 (Frederick Rd.) and I-70 in Lisbon that occurred at approximately 1:00 p.m.

Preliminary investigation revealed that a Chevy Cobalt was traveling southbound on Rt. 94 when it crossed the double yellow center line and struck a Mack CL713 dump truck that was traveling northbound. The driver of the Chevy was not wearing a seatbelt at the time of the collision.

The driver and sole-occupant of the Chevy, Marcos Henrique De Lacerda, 32, of Ellicott City is currently listed in serious condition at the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center.

The driver and sole-occupant of the dump truck, Glenn Scott Beck, 56, of Frederick is currently listed in stable condition at Howard County General Hospital.

The investigation is ongoing. Rt. 94 was closed for approximately two and a half hours.
